NORTHEAST HOMECARE CLINICAL MANAGER SELECTED TO PRESENT AT NATIONAL CONFERENCE

Beverly, Mass. – Reading resident Sharon Gonick, MSPT, Clinical Manager for Northeast HomeCare in Beverly, has been named a presenter at the National Association for Home Care & Hospice 30th Annual Meeting & Exposition. Taking place this fall, the conference will bring together thousands of home health and hospice professionals from across the country to share information, resources and best practices.

Gonick's presentation, entitled Technology Driven Home Health: Integrating Advances into Multidisciplinary Practice, will review how home health agencies can leverage technology to improve patient care and clinical outcomes. Her workshop was chosen from a large number of proposals by potential conference faculty.

“All of us at Northeast HomeCare congratulate Sharon Gonick on being named a speaker at a highly esteemed national convention. Her being selected is a testament to her expertise and leadership in the delivery of home health services,” said Karen Gomes, RN, Executive Director of Home Health Services for Northeast Senior Health.
